Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seemingly stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $300.00 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."

CUTTING ON RIVER EXCURSION.

While lying asleep on the steamer Falls City on Saturday night, a young man by the name of Tom Long was stabbed by an unknown party. The knife struck a rib and glanced, otherwise the stroke would have been fatal. As it was, the point of the knife penetrated the stomach slightly.

A young man by the name of Marion Johnson, from Millville, was arrested charged with the offense, which he strenuously denies.

The wounded man was taken to the King's Daughters Hospital and Dr. H. S. Keller attended to his injuries.

LETTER FROM HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS.

As I have ample time, before taking my morning stroll, I'll tell you, as best I can, what I have heard about this wonderful place, made by God in which marvelous cures have been known to be made.

The legendary history of Hot Springs, Ark., is as romantic as its history is interesting. It is believed that these thermal springs were the ones sought for as the "Fountain of Perpetual Youth," by Ponce de Leon, but he sought in vain.

De Soto is said to have been the first man to discover Hot Springs. De Soto and several other explorers spent the winter of 1541 directing a search for gold.

Translated writings from the Spanish, some of De Soto's army, spoke of finding hot lakes and hot water pouring from the mountain. As there are no other hot lakes in America this is supposed to be the original ones discovered by the Spanish explorers.

Next came the Indians and camped about the valleys and mountain. They had even more faith in the curative value of this water than do this civilized generation.

The Indians believed that the Great Spirit breathed a healing power into the waters. They were filled with such sacred awe that they believed the valley immune from harm and strife. Therefore, they dwelt in peace with the early French trappers, so tradition roads. The first white man to settle at Hot Springs was Manuel Friendhomne, in 1807, where he camped four years.

In 1820 the first log cabin was erected and in 1828 other buildings were erected, stores started and hotels opened. In 1850 the first bath house was built by Asa Thompson.

But the Hot Springs of to-day can be called a city of hotels and bath houses. No other resort is so well equipped to care for the sick and afflicted, as well as a pleasure resort.

The city is in a valley east and west. Ozark Mountain towering on each side.

The mountain sides for a distance of several hundred feet have been beautifully parked.

There are steps leading up the mountain side four miles of walking distance. And twelve miles of beautiful driveways, which wind around the mountain, and at each turn see some new scene from the beautiful Ozark, overlooking the valley and the city of Hot Springs.

The average temperature of the water is 135 Fahrenheit.

The population of Hot Springs is 15,000, with 150,000 annual visitors.

The summer is very pleasant and the air tempered with pleasant breeze.

The springs discharge 1,000,000 gallons of water per day.

There were originally seventy-one hot springs, all situated on the western slope of Hot Springs Mountain. But since so much improvement has taken place many springs are merged into one. Now only forty-nine are in evidence.

The baths are supposed to be good for all ailments but tuberculosis and heart trouble.

But there are almost as many pleasure seekers here as health seekers. As the walks and drives are grand. The cold water springs are on opposite mountain from the Hot Springs, which are Arsenic, Rock Magnesia, Potash, Sulphur, Iron, Sulphuric Acid, Carbonic Acid, etc.

Every one walks to the springs before breakfast and several times a day.

The bath houses are well equipped and have fine attendants.

I have been here two weeks but leave in a few days for St. Louis. I feel it has been quite a treat to visit Hot Springs, even if it is in the State of Arkansas.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under seal. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

It will give us pleasure to show you our present offerings in fine and medium priced furniture—the sort that is both appropriate and durable. And we shall also be glad to tell you of our liberal partial payment plan—a little at a time, as your income permits.

Buy Furniture

Economically.

Extravagance consists in buying the wrong thing at the wrong price.

Economy consists in buying the right thing at the right price.

If you are truly economical you will not buy furniture merely because it is cheap. It should be bought—first for its appropriateness—and second, for its durability.
